EINPresswire.com/ -- Selvatica, the best adventure park in Quintana Roo, located in Puerto Morelos and part of The Dolphin Company, a global park operator, has announced an exciting new tour for thrill-seekers: Sky Trail! This new adventure will take visitors through a high-adrenaline circuit, where they can pedal on suspended bicycles in the sky bike adventure in Cancun, defying gravity among the treetops.

In this exhilarating aerial tour, visitors will traverse a circuit of six ziplines tour in Cancun, ride Tarzania—the only human roller coaster in Quintana Roo—and test their courage by jumping from the Bungee Swing, where they'll experience free fall from an elevated platform surrounded by breathtaking jungle scenery. Additionally, they'll enjoy the incredible new activity called ZipCycle, an exciting fusion of cycling and ziplining, where participants glide at high speed on suspended bicycles, feeling the freedom of soaring through the air powered by their own energy.

“At Selvatica, we have taken adventure to the next level. Sky Trail is an unforgettable experience, perfect for those seeking a dose of excitement and adventure in contact with nature. We are confident that our visitors will have a fantastic time while enjoying the heights in a completely unique way. We'll make sure they feel part of this jungle tribe and have the best experience,” said Carlos Hernández, General Manager of Selvatica.

Sky Trail will be available at Selvatica starting December 28 with a special launch deal for local visitors who can enjoy the complete circuit, which lasts approximately 4 to 5 hours and includes lunch and water.

Additionally, Sky Trail adheres to rigorous safety standards, following the guidelines of the ACCT (Association for Challenge Course Technology), a globally recognized authority in the challenge course and aerial adventure industry. This ensures that every aspect of the experience complies with the most advanced and up-to-date safety protocols, from equipment installation to the comprehensive training of the staff.

Come and defy gravity with Sky Trail, only at Selvatica!
