St. Helen School Hosts January Open House

St. Helen Catholic School provides a faith-filled, academically rigorous education for students from preschool through eighth grade. The school community encourages students to follow Jesus' example by serving others and growing in their faith. Their commitment to excellence ensures that every child receives a high-quality education that prepares them for a successful future.

We look forward to welcoming families to discover the faith, education, and community that we offer. This Open House is an opportunity to see how we nurture both academic success and spiritual growth.”

Steve Martin

“We look forward to welcoming families to experience the exceptional faith, education, and community that St. Helen offers,” said Steve Martin, Principal of St. Helen Catholic School. “This Open House is the perfect opportunity to see firsthand how we nurture both academic success and spiritual growth.”

Whether you are considering Catholic education for the first time or are exploring options for your child’s next academic step, St. Helen invites you to their Open House for a relaxed and informative opportunity to get answers to your questions and connect with the St. Helen community.
