“Being featured on the cover of Vogue México is a tremendous honor,” Gallardo shared. “It’s a reminder of how far determination can take you, and I hope to inspire others to pursue their goals with passion.”

Tying her vision of success to action, Gallardo will host a Vision Board event this January 16th, a workshop designed to help participants visualize and set goals for the year ahead. The event reflects the values celebrated in her Vogue spotlight—empowerment, clarity, and the courage to dream big. Attendees will have the chance to create a vision board for the year, including visual representations of everything they hope to accomplish in the coming year.

The Vision Board event, set for January 16th in Irvine, California, will offer attendees an opportunity to learn strategies for success while creating their own visual roadmaps for the year. Tools and collaging supplies will be provided.
