“Our mission is urgent and clear: to address the growing mental health crisis with solutions that are accessible, individualized, and rooted in community,” said Dr. Andrea Givens, CEO of Global Impact Wellness Group. “From psychiatric rehabilitation to substance use disorder treatment, we are determined to remove barriers to care and create meaningful, sustainable change.”

This announcement comes as communities nationwide grapple with unprecedented mental health challenges. GIWG’s flagship programs, such as its Psychiatric Rehabilitation initiative, provide clients with critical life skills, from coping mechanisms to vocational training, empowering them to achieve long-term success. Meanwhile, its Substance Use Disorder program goes beyond treatment by offering family support and transportation services to break down systemic obstacles to care.

The impact of GIWG's work is already being felt, with families and individuals reporting transformative outcomes. As the demand for comprehensive mental health services grows, the organization remains steadfast in its commitment to making care available to those who need it most.

About Global Impact Wellness Group

Global Impact Wellness Group has been a leader in mental health care for over two decades, offering psychiatric rehabilitation, outpatient treatments, and substance use disorder programs. Dedicated to improving the mental, emotional, and physical well-being of communities, GIWG combines innovation with compassion to deliver unparalleled care.
