Join the Celebration

The Black Culture Foundation invites individuals, organizations, and businesses to participate in this historic event. "Whether you are attending the events, marching in the parade, or volunteering to ensure the events are a success, your involvement will help make this year's Black History celebrations a resounding success," said Dameron.

Sponsorship Opportunities

The Black Culture Foundation is seeking sponsors to help make this event successful. Sponsorship packages offer a variety of benefits, including logo placement, advertising mentions, booth space at the festival, and tickets to the Black Rose Awards are available online at SBBCFoundation.org.

About the Black Culture Foundation

The Black Culture Foundation's noble purpose is to kindle an interest in and deeper appreciation of Black culture, raise community awareness about the achievements of Black individuals, past and present, and organize an annual Black History Month parade and associated cultural events. Furthermore, the foundation seeks to transcend cultural barriers by uniting the local community and celebrating this event with unity and brotherhood.
