

Stein Law's Masquerade Soirée Raises $5,000 for Youth Empowerment

MIAMI, FL, UNITED STATES, January 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Gregory Smith Jr. Foundation, in collaboration with Stein Law, hosted the Masquerade Soirée: Wine & Cheese for a Cause on November 16, 2024, raising $5,000 to benefit Break the Cycle, a program empowering youth through cycling.

The event featured an elegant masquerade theme, a curated wine and cheese tasting, and a lively auction that included items such as original art, Broadway tickets, and signed memorabilia. Guests came together to support the foundation's mission to provide opportunities for underserved youth and address the impacts of gun violence.

"This is volunteer work, and you know it's helping people who need it the most," said Brandon Stein, co-founder of the foundation.

Funds raised will support Break the Cycle programs, promoting fitness, discipline, and community for young people, as well as the foundation's broader advocacy and educational efforts.
