elevate the care experience for both patients and team members. The partnership underscores Mountain Land's ongoing commitment to delivering the highest quality care across the Mountain West region.

Superior Physical Therapy operates eight outpatient clinics in Eastern Idaho, including locations in Pocatello, Idaho Falls, American Falls, Fort Hall, and Rexburg. In addition to their outpatient services, they collaborate with local hospitals to provide specialized rehabilitation programs, ensuring comprehensive care for patients across various settings. Their services include advanced diagnostic testing technologies, such as ultrasound imaging and EMG which assist in the identification of the root cause and better inform the patients' treatment plans.

This partnership reinforces Mountain Land's vision of providing a primary care physical therapist for everyone to advance healthcare and empower movement for life. By enhancing patients' lives through exceptional physical therapy services and integrating advanced diagnostic innovations, Mountain Land supports optimal healing and recovery. "We are excited to welcome Superior Physical Therapy into the Mountain Land family," said Rick Lybbert, CEO of Mountain Land Physical Therapy Partners. "Superior's expertise in diagnostics strengthens our ability to identify root causes and deliver more precise, effective treatments. Together, we are setting a higher standard of care and reinforcing our commitment to exceptional patient outcomes."

Bart McDonald, President of Superior Physical Therapy, shared his enthusiasm about the partnership with Mountain Land, saying, "We're excited to join the Mountain Land team. "This collaboration will help us continue delivering exceptional care while honoring our commitment to our patients and communities. We pride ourselves on being strong community supporters and good neighbors, and this partnership reinforces our dedication to these values."

About Mountain Land Physical Therapy Partners

Mountain Land Physical Therapy Partners is the parent company of a family of brands that includes Therapy West, RPT, and now Superior PT, collectively operating more than 70 outpatient physical therapy clinics across the Mountain West region of the United States. Founded in 1984, Mountain Land is spearheaded by Chief Executive Officer Rick Lybbert and Chief Operating Officer Jason Lobb, both of whom are physical therapists and have been with the business for 30+ and 20+ years, respectively. Mountain Land has a long-standing history and strong reputation and is committed to its vision to have a primary care physical therapist for everyone to advance healthcare and empower movement for life.
