

Partner Real Estate Rallies Behind Relief Efforts for Mt. Kanlaon Eruption Victims

CA, UNITED STATES, January 2, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In the wake of the devastating eruption of Mt. Kanlaon on December 9, 2024, the Partner Real Estate team has stepped forward to support families impacted by the disaster. The eruption, which forced the evacuation of thousands within a six-kilometer radius, has left 11,700 families in urgent need of assistance, according to PHIVOLCS.

Leading the charge is Feleen Esmedia, Inside Sales Team Manager at Partner Real Estate, who lives near the affected area. With her church, Jesus Love Ministries, already assisting evacuees, Feleen brought the situation to the attention of her colleagues. Inspired by her leadership, the Partner Real Estate team quickly mobilized to provide relief.

“Witnessing the hardship these families are enduring, our team knew we had to act,” said Esmedia. “I am incredibly grateful for the generosity of my colleagues and their willingness to extend a helping hand to those in need.”

Prioritizing Families in Need
With funds raised by the team, the relief effort initially focused on supporting 25 families from the Mt.

Kanlaon – Mt. Zion House of Prayer, a community located near the summit of the volcano. The following items were donated and distributed on December 27th at 10AM:

Banana Cake
Loaf Bread
Canned Goods
Peanut Butter
Fruits
1.5-Liter Coke
Biscuits
Rice
Candies and Chocolates for Children

Team Contributions

The relief effort was made possible by contributions from Partner Real Estate staff members, including Margaret Ly, Hazel Tubayan, Roche, Carlos, Tracey, John Sibal, Rocel, and Lovelyn. The on-the-ground distribution of goods was led by Feleen and Richelle Malapitan.
