

Award-Winning Short Film Mutton Paya Recognized at Global Film Festivals

A film that captures the deep emotional connection between families and the unexpected tragedy that forever altered their lives.

AURANGABAD, MAHARASHTRA, INDIA, January 4, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- iFlims Production is proud to commemorate its second anniversary, a milestone made even more special by the overwhelming love and support for its short film, Mutton Paya. The film, inspired by true events, has resonated deeply with audiences, reflecting the universal themes of love, loss, and resilience.

Mutton Paya

Written and directed by Shamun Ayesha Khan, Mutton Paya draws inspiration from the tragic Air India Express Flight 1344 incident. On August 7, 2020, the flight overshot the runway at Kozhikode International Airport during adverse weather conditions, leading to 21 fatalities and numerous injuries. This heart-wrenching event serves as the backdrop for the film's poignant narrative, which follows the emotional journey of a family navigating life after an unimaginable tragedy.

Telling stories that move hearts and inspire resilience is at the core of what we do—Mutton Paya is no exception.”

Dr. Amit Magare, Executive Director

The film features stellar performances by Shubhangi Gokhale, Meera Joshi, Taneeta Rajawat, Vraj Makwana, and Saurabh Mukhija. Each actor brings depth and authenticity to their roles, creating an emotionally charged experience for viewers

Since its release, Mutton Paya has resonated with audiences, garnering significant attention and praise for its heartfelt storytelling and compelling performances. It has been widely appreciated for shedding light on the human aspects of unforeseen tragedies.

Mutton Paya has garnered several prestigious accolades, including the Certificate of Achievement at the International Tagore Film Awards for Best Film, a Certificate of Recognition for Best Film at the 5th Nepal Wings International Critics Film Festival, and the Best Film award for International Excellence at the Crown International Film Awards – Bangladesh. These recognitions highlight the film's exceptional cinematic achievement and its powerful impact on audiences and critics alike.

Dr. Amit Magare, Executive Director of iFlims Production, shared his thoughts: "With Mutton Paya, we aimed to portray the profound impact of unexpected tragedies on ordinary lives. The positive reception from our audience reaffirms the importance of telling such stories."

"Mutton Paya" is now available for viewing on YouTube, offering audiences an opportunity to witness a deeply moving tale that transcends borders and speaks to the strength of the human spirit.
