Menus will vary by location and include both sampler and full menu combinations, inviting guests to experience a variety of Koi Palace's signature offerings. Featured dishes include:

We aim to bring guests a taste of flavors from around the world. We're honored to welcome a legend like Koi Palace and couldn't imagine a more fitting partner for this mission."

Local Kitchens CEO, Jon Goldsmith

- Steamed BBQ Pork Buns: Fluffy bao buns filled with succulent barbecue pork ($8, 3 pieces)
- Crispy Shrimp Dumplings: Crispy fried dumplings filled with a blend of shrimp and pork ($10, 5 pieces)
- Crispy Vegetarian Spring Rolls: Assorted vegetables wrapped in a golden, crispy shell and served with sweet-and-sour sauce ($7, 3 pieces)
- Potstickers: Pan-seared dumplings with savory pork and mixed vegetables ($10, 4 pieces)

- Lava Buns: Soft steamed bao buns filled with a sweet salted egg custard ($8, 3 pieces)

Founded in 1996 by brothers Willy and Ronny Ng, Koi Palace set out to bring the rich tradition of Cantonese dim sum to the Bay Area. After nearly three decades, the restaurant has become an icon in Northern California's culinary landscape, earning widespread acclaim for its authentic, meticulously crafted dishes. This dedication to quality and flavor continues as Koi Palace brings their fan-favorite dishes to all Local Kitchens locations.

"We aim to bring guests a taste of flavors from around the world while providing our culinary partners an accessible avenue for reaching new and expanded audiences," said Local Kitchens CEO, Jon Goldsmith. "We're honored to welcome a legend like Koi Palace and couldn't imagine a more fitting partner for this mission."
