Enrollment in ASL classes is $75 for a five-week course. Classes are free for the Deaf and hard of hearing, with discounts available to immediate family members. ASL Levels 1-5 are offered and interested individuals can register online at www.dhhc.life or bring payment to the first class.

ASL classes are designed for beginners and open to anyone who wants to learn sign language. Learning this visual language can help people with hearing loss stay connected to their family and friends. Upon successful completion of each course, students will receive a certificate of accomplishment, recognizing their dedication and achievement.

DHHC also offers an ASL Family Class, provided at no cost to families with school-aged Deaf or hard of hearing children. These family-oriented sessions are held biweekly on Tuesdays, from 6:30 PM to 7:30 PM in Fort Myers and from 5:30 PM to 6:30 PM in Lehigh Acres. Siblings and other family members are strongly encouraged to participate, creating a supportive environment for parents and family members to learn basic ASL and immerse themselves in Deaf Culture together.

Amy Turner, Executive Director of DHHC, highlighted the numerous advantages of learning American Sign Language, "There are so many positive reasons to sign up for a sign language course. Not only will it enhance your ability to communicate effectively with Deaf or hard of hearing individuals, but it will also boost cognitive activity, immerse you in a rich and diverse culture, and open doors to new friendships. It's a wonderful way to broaden your horizons and connect with a vibrant community!"

About Sally J. Pimentel Deaf & Hard of Hearing Center

The Sally J. Pimentel Deaf & Hard of Hearing Center (DHHC), established in 1983, empowers Deaf and hard-of-hearing individuals and their families in Southwest Florida through education, advocacy, and community engagement.
