In a global celebration of exceptional baking, Isles Bun & Coffee, a cherished Minneapolis bakery, has been named the 2024 World's Best Cinnamon Rolls by the esteemed World's Best Cinnamon Rolls organization.

This prestigious accolade recognizes Isles Bun & Coffee's unwavering dedication to perfecting the art of the cinnamon roll—a creation of exquisite craftsmanship, unforgettable flavor, and community-centered tradition.

Our cinnamon rolls are more than pastries—they're a tradition, a connection, and a little piece of joy we share with our community every day.”

Cathererine, Co-Owner

The honor comes after a year-long search spanning four continents, with thousands of nominations submitted from around the globe. From bustling urban bakeries to hidden gems in small towns, Isles Bun & Coffee stood out as a masterpiece of baking excellence. The judging team made multiple visits to the bakery, sampling their iconic cinnamon rolls during the summer and again in late fall. The search for cinnamon roll perfection led them straight to the heart of Minneapolis, where Isles Bun & Coffee seamlessly blends tradition, innovation, and community.

A Tradition Rooted in Flavor and Community

Nestled near the picturesque Lake of the Isles, Isles Bun & Coffee has been a neighborhood treasure for over 25 years. Owned and operated by Jeff and Catherine since 2000, this cozy bakery is more than a purveyor of pastries—it's a place where memories are baked fresh every day.

"This bakery is the soul of our community," said Catherine. "Generations of families have gathered here, from children sitting at the counter watching us bake to those same children returning years later with kids of their own. It's a tradition we're proud to keep alive."

What Makes Isles Bun & Coffee's Cinnamon Rolls the Best in the World?

Winning the title of 2024 World's Best Cinnamon Rolls requires something truly extraordinary. Isles delivers on every front:

The Dough: Soft, fluffy, and lightly kissed with a yeasty aroma, the texture is a perfect balance of pillowy comfort and structural integrity.

The Filling: A luscious swirl of cinnamon and brown sugar that harmonizes sweetness and spice in every bite.

The Frosting: A generously layered cream cheese frosting that is tangy, velvety, and indulgently rich. For those who crave even more, Isles offers extra frosting served in a to-go coffee cup—a signature touch that fans rave about.

Beyond the iconic cinnamon rolls, Isles Bun & Coffee is also celebrated for its Puppy Dog Tails, a twisted, cinnamon-sugar-coated snack crafted from cinnamon roll dough. Perfect for sharing (or savoring solo), these treats are a must-try for first-time visitors and loyal regulars alike.

A Global Search Concludes in Minneapolis

The World's Best Cinnamon Rolls team has explored thousands of bakeries across the USA, Canada, Europe, and Asia in their quest for cinnamon roll excellence. Past winners include beloved spots such as Scratch in Kansas City, Maialino in New York City, and The Corner Café in Kansas City. Yet Isles Bun & Coffee earned the top spot for its unparalleled pastries and its heartwarming connection to the Minneapolis community.

"From the moment we stepped inside, we knew Isles Bun & Coffee was special," said a spokesperson for World's Best Cinnamon Rolls. "It's more than the incredible cinnamon rolls; it's the warmth, passion, and dedication that Jeff, Catherine, and their team pour into everything they do. They've created a bakery that feels like home."
