

2025 ClearMark Awards Submissions Open

Celebrating Excellence in Plain Language

RICHMOND, VA, UNITED STATES, January 7, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Center for Plain Language announces the opening of submissions for the 2025 ClearMark Awards, the leading event honoring achievements in clear and accessible communication. This annual competition recognizes organizations and individuals transforming complex content into clear, user-friendly materials across various industries.

This year, the ClearMark Awards introduces the "Best In" awards, designed to spotlight outstanding work across all categories. These new distinctions complement the existing category awards and the prestigious Grand ClearMark Award, broadening the recognition of excellence in plain language.

About the ClearMark Awards

The ClearMark Awards highlight projects that simplify communication for diverse audiences. Past winners include government agencies, nonprofits, and businesses that excel in creating accessible websites, apps, documents, and reports.

Submission Details

Submissions are accepted from January 6 to January 31, 2025. Eligible entries will be evaluated for the new "Best In" awards, alongside their respective categories.
