

EDRM Announces Proteus Discovery Group as Newest Trusted Partner

MINNEAPOLIS, MN, UNITED STATES, January 24, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Leading the way for global best practices in e-discovery, the Electronic Discovery Reference Model (EDRM) is pleased to announce Proteus, a full-service eDiscovery legal services company, has joined the EDRM Trusted Partner Network as a Preserver Partner.

Privacy, security, and AI-enabled eDiscovery technology and services will play a central role in organizations as they strive to keep their data secure. Robust e-discovery technology, supported by expertise and services, helps organizations respond to litigation, compliance, and investigation demands.

In the era of hybrid and remote work at scale, organizations need to securely manage information, protect confidential and privileged access, and collaborate effectively to be efficient and productive and adhere to the increasingly complex demands of security and data privacy frameworks. The ability to have trusted providers like Proteus in the legal environment is mission-critical.

We are excited to partner with EDRM, a recognized leader in this space, to further develop best practices and advance the industry as a whole.”

seamless, coast-to-coast service.

“Proteus Discovery Group is a strong advocate for building a collaborative and knowledgeable eDiscovery community since our founding,” said Ray Biederman, Proteus co-founder and CEO. “We are excited to partner with EDRM, a recognized leader in this space, to further develop best practices and advance the industry as a whole. This partnership will allow us to provide our clients with access to the best possible resources and expertise, while also giving us a platform to share our own insights and experience.”

Among the EDRM opportunities and resources available to partners like Proteus are the ability to connect, network, and contribute via EDRM projects and events, share their service and product offerings, and enhance brand awareness to a global community. The EDRM community of knowledgeable, multidisciplinary professionals is building resources to enhance e-discovery, privacy, security, and information governance frameworks, processes, and standards.

“Proteus Discovery Group has been a community builder from Day One,” said Mary Mack, CEO and chief legal technologist for EDRM. “EDRM is proud to partner with Proteus as they expand their range of service, and range of service offerings into 2025 and beyond.”

This partnership allows Proteus access to the EDRM community, comprising 33% corporations, 30% law firms, 23% software and service providers, and 12% governments, with the remaining 2% being a mix of educators, students, judges, and media in 145 countries spanning six continents.

Looking ahead to 2025, Proteus is poised to lead the eDiscovery industry, developing solutions to meet the increasing needs of its clients and further cementing its role as a key player in legal technology.
