

Stanford Marine (SM) and Allianz Middle East (AME) Deploys Ecodrisil Solution for ESG Data Management and Reporting

DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, January 8, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Stanford Marine (SM) and Allianz Middle East (AME), leading providers of offshore supply vessels and marine services, have selected Ecodrisil ESG Xpress, an AI-powered ESG data management and reporting solution from Travanleo. Ecodrisil will automate SM & AME's sustainability journey and enhance its ESG reporting capabilities, aligning with global standards and frameworks like GRI and IFRS leveraging its advanced ESGAI® Copilot feature and digital automation tools.

SM & AME operate a fleet of over 100 multipurpose Offshore Supply Vessels, providing a comprehensive range of services to the oil and gas industry across the Middle East, Southeast Asia, and West Africa. Headquartered in the UAE, with additional offices in KSA, Singapore, and Malaysia, they offer vessel chartering, cross-chartering, and vessel management services that support critical offshore activities including towing, rig move operations, anchor handling, and offshore construction.

In its ongoing effort to solidify its position as a leader in sustainability within the offshore marine industry, SM & AME are working along with Living Business, an ESG consulting firm to roll out a strategic program to drive their sustainability initiatives, Ecodrisil solution will act as a cornerstone to implement and track the progress of this strategic program towards achieving their ESG goals. The Ecodrisil platform will facilitate the collection, organization, and management of ESG data across their global operations, ensuring efficient, error-free and transparent reporting.

The scope of Ecodrisil ESG Solution at Stanford Marine and Allianz Middle East includes:

- Automated collection of ESG data across SM & AME's global operations
- Actionable insights into aggregated ESG data and ESG performance metrics
- Comprehensive reporting across ESG topics and integration of financial metrics in compliance with global standards (GRI, SASB, IFRS)
