

Summit BHC Strengthens Mental Health Services in New Mexico With Opening of Crisis Triage Center in Doña Ana

FRANKLIN, TN, UNITED STATES, January 7, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Summit Behavioral Healthcare (Summit) proudly announces the opening of the Crisis Triage Center (CTC) in Doña Ana County, NM, on January 1, 2025. The CTC provides immediate, comprehensive care for adults aged 18 and over who are experiencing mental health or substance use crises.

The CTC's mission is to stabilize individuals and connect them to the appropriate level of care. As such, the CTC will operate 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year, ensuring uninterrupted services to those in need.

The range of services offered at the CTC includes peer engagement to provide emotional support and shared experiences, nursing assessments for immediate health evaluations, clinical interventions to address acute needs, medical administration to manage medications, care coordination to connect clients with follow-up services, and transportation to ensure individuals can reach the facility or other care locations safely.

"The opening of the CTC represents Summit's unwavering commitment to addressing mental health and substance use crises in our communities," said Dwight Lacy, Chief Operating Officer. "This facility is not just a resource—it's also a lifeline for individuals during their most vulnerable moments. We're honored to help guide this effort and work alongside an incredible team dedicated to hope and healing."
