

Rehabs of America Launches the Largest, Most Comprehensive Online Directory of Alcohol and Drug Rehabs in the United States

Lake Forest, California – Rehabs of America is excited to announce the launch of its comprehensive online directory of alcohol and drug rehab centers in the United States. This resource is currently one of the largest and most in-depth of its kind available online.

Rehabs of America is an independent organization that simplifies finding mental health and addiction treatment by providing individuals with comprehensive profiles of over 30,000 rehab centers, including insurance coverage, pricing, photos, reviews, and more, to help them make an informed decision on the facility best suited to their unique needs.

“Choosing the route to recovery has never been easier,” said a spokesperson for Rehabs of America. “Explore our comprehensive directory of rehab centers across the United States. We connect individuals and families with the right support to start their journey toward recovery and a healthier future.”

Whether seeking a premier rehab facility that solely treats substance and alcohol abuse or a center that specializes in dual-diagnosis and mental health disorders, such as depression, anxiety disorders, and OCD treatment, Rehabs of America offers tailored rehab center recommendations based on each user’s unique needs.

With the online directory’s personalized search, individuals can browse over 600+ centers in America, pick from over 250+ expert therapists, and read about hundreds of specialist treatments, including couples therapy, medical detox, PTSD treatment, and pet-friendly rehab, to equip themselves with crucial knowledge and insights on how to structure their journey to recovery.

“Join the thousands who have found trusted recovery options through our platform. Find rehab centers that accept a wide range of insurance plans for more accessible care,” furthered the spokesperson for Rehabs of America.

Rehabs of America encourages individuals with any questions about its services or about any of the facilities featured in its listings to call (888) 899-5552 today to speak to an expert member of its team.
