5th Annual Palm Springs Passion 4 Pinot Festival

Grand Tasting

The festival's highlight, the Grand Tasting, will take place on Saturday, February 1, 2025, from 2:00 PM to 5:30 PM at the Westin Rancho Mirage Golf Resort & Spa. This event offers a unique opportunity to meet and get to know winemakers, winery owners and key winery personnel.

Our festival isn't just an event; it's a journey through the finest vineyards of the West Coast, where every sip tells a story and every bite is a celebration."

Festival Founder David Fraschetti

Tickets for the Grand Tasting range from $170 to $190, with VIP Vista Terrace tickets already sold out.

Additional Events

The festival features several other exciting events:

1. Exclusive winemaker dinners: Intimate dining experiences with gourmet pairings

2. Wine education Master Classes: "From Carneros to West Sonoma Coast - A Tour of Sonoma County Pinot Noir" on January 31, 2025 as well as our Champagne + Caviar Master Class & Tasting

3. Sunday Brunch: Spotlights 10 of Santa Lucia Highlands's AVA's best wineries. Meet and chat with winery owners, winemakers and key winery personal pouring 30+ wines. All available for tasting.

Festival Highlights

- Engagement with 80 top winery owners and winemakers from California
- Over 225 top-tier Pinot Noir wines available for tasting
- Educational opportunities to learn about winemaking processes and philosophies
- Sophisticated casual dress suggested for these upscale events

Festival Founder David Fraschetti emphasizes the event's unique appeal: "Our festival isn't just an event; it's a journey through the finest vineyards of the West Coast, where every sip tells a story and every bite is a celebration."

Tickets for various events range from $125 to $190. Wine enthusiasts are encouraged to secure their tickets early, as this popular event is known to sell out.
