

Newsmatic Inc. Closes X Account, Embraces Bluesky for Enhanced Engagement

In a Shift Towards Decentralized Media, Newsmatics Reinforces Its Commitment to Transparency and Innovation.

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, January 8, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Newsmatic Inc., a leading news technology company, today announced the closure of its X accounts, including its press release distribution service EIN Presswire. This strategic move underscores the company's commitment to adopting platforms that align with its mission of fostering news transparency and meaningful engagement in the digital media landscape. Effective immediately, Newsmatics will transition its social media presence to Bluesky, a social network designed to empower users and communities.

As the media landscape evolves, so must we. Our decision to transition from X to Bluesky is rooted in our belief in decentralized networks that prioritize trust, transparency, and collaboration.”

David Rothstein, CEO & Founder of Newsmatics Inc.

Newsmatics will leverage Bluesky's dynamic ecosystem to share news, updates, and industry insights directly with its audience. This shift reflects Newsmatics' dedication to exploring forward-thinking solutions that prioritize user control and reduce the barriers to authentic communication.
