Revol One Financial® Strengthens Financial Foundation Through Strategic Partnership with Knighthead Re

Revol One Financial selected Knighthead Re for its strong financial strength ratings, including an A-rating from AM Best, and its deep expertise in annuity product pricing and design. This collaboration empowers Revol One Financial to accelerate growth by reducing capital constraints, driving product innovation, and reinforces its commitment to financial security -- instilling confidence among customers and distribution partners.

“We are excited to partner with Knighthead Re,” said Mark

Zesbaugh, Chairman and CEO of Revol One Financial. “Our customers and distribution partners remain our top priority. Knighthead Re's financial strength and deep understanding of the annuity market perfectly aligns with our mission to revolutionize how people feel, think and experience retirement solutions."

"Partnering with Revol One Financial represents a strategic opportunity for Knighthead Re," stated Ed Massaro, Chief Executive Officer at Knighthead Insurance Group. "This agreement allows us to share our expertise in annuities as well as the strength of our balance sheet with Revol One Financial while benefiting from increased diversification of our reinsurance portfolio. We look forward to being part of Revol One Financial's innovative approach and building on our shared values of providing financial security and stability to policyholders."

This transformative collaboration well positions Revol One Financial in the fixed annuity space, driving forward product innovation, operational agility, and a steadfast commitment to delivering best-in-class service and value to our customers and distribution partners.
