□Prime Location: Just a 10-minute walk from Kenrokuen Garden, one of Japan's most famous gardens, with easy access to major attractions in Kanazawa.

Designed for affluent international travelers, families seeking cultural immersion in garden and samurai culture, and couples desiring a memorable getaway, Kanazawa Stay Akebono offers a unique, luxurious escape. With only one reservation per day, guests can enjoy an intimate, personalized experience in this exclusive property.

Additionally, KICKs Co., Ltd. is a tourism venture focused on revitalizing the Ishikawa and Noto regions. Founded by Kento Yamamoto, who has an impressive background as an Amazon Japan alumnus and U.S. CPA, KICKs is committed to supporting the local community through tourism. Following the Noto Peninsula earthquake earlier this year, the company aims to contribute to Noto's recovery and will donate 1% of Kanazawa Stay Akebono's revenue to earthquake recovery efforts in the region. Future expansion into Noto is planned as part of KICKs' long-term mission.

We kindly ask for your coverage and would be delighted to share this exciting new venture with your readers.
