ArtMattan Films is proud to announce that The Wall Street Boy, Kipkemboi has been nominated for the NAACP's Outstanding International Motion

Picture Award. This prestigious recognition celebrates the film's powerful storytelling and global impact.

“

ArtMattan Films is honored that The Wall Street Boy, Kipkemboi has been selected for this prestigious nomination, which further solidifies the film's significance...”

ArtMattan Films

The Wall Street Boy, Kipkemboi tells the story of a young math genius from a Kenyan village who develops a revolutionary algorithm to play the stock market from his mud hut. This film is a compelling story about innovation, perseverance, and the potential of Africa's youth.

Directed by Charles Uwagbai, the film stars Thamele Mpumlwana as Kipkemboi and Elsie Abang as Chepchirchir. Their performances bring a deeply human element to the high-stakes narrative.

The film is in excellent company. The other nominees in the category are:

- El lugar de la otra (Netflix)
- Emilia Pérez (Netflix)
- Memoir of a Snail (IFC Films)
- The Seed of the Sacred Fig (NEON)

ArtMattan Films is honored that The Wall Street Boy, Kipkemboi has been selected for this prestigious nomination, which further solidifies the film's significance and ArtMattan Films' commitment to sharing diverse global stories with audiences.
