Tide Cleaners in Oxford reopens with a focus on providing convenient laundry solutions, offering services for everything from everyday wear to delicate garments.

On Thursday, Jan. 9, owners David Reitz and Miguel Lopez are hosting a grand reopening event on Thursday, Jan. 9, at 4 p.m., at 297 Oxford Rd. As a gesture of gratitude to the community for their support throughout the challenging time, Tide Cleaners will offer complimentary cleaning to all guests. Customers can bring one item—such as a coat, dress, pair of pants or two laundered shirts—and have it cleaned for free.

The reopening of Tide Cleaners marks a significant step forward for our community as we continue to recover from the challenges of last summer.

Bill Purcell, president of the Greater Valley Chamber of Commerce

“The reopening of Tide Cleaners marks a significant step forward for our community as we continue to recover from the challenges of last summer,” said Bill Purcell, president of the Greater Valley Chamber of Commerce. “This achievement highlights the determination and resourcefulness of owners David and Miguel Lopez. We also commend DECD Commissioner Daniel O’Keefe for providing vital support through the Micro-Grant Program, as well as First Selectman George Temple and Economic Development Director Jeff Luff for their continued leadership during this recovery process.”
