Promotion Highlights Commitment to Client Success and Expands Leadership in Investment Management Solutions

PALM BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, January 10, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Jack McCluskey Promoted to Senior Vice President at Castle Island Family Office

Castle Island Family Office is proud to announce the promotion of Jack McCluskey to Senior Vice President. This promotion comes as a result of Jack's hard work, dedication, and successful completion of the SEC licensure process.

Jack has been an integral part of the Castle Island Family Office team, contributing significantly to the firm's growth and client success. He completed his MBA at the Crummer School of Business and earned his undergraduate degree at Rollins College, where he was a member of the Varsity Baseball team. His commitment to excellence and ability to navigate complex financial landscapes positioned him for this advancement.

"We are thrilled to promote Jack to Senior Vice President," said Kevin McCluskey, CEO of Castle Island Family Office. "His hard work, professionalism, and commitment to our clients embody the core values of our firm. I am confident that in his new role, he will continue to drive our mission forward and inspire our team."

In his new position, Jack will oversee client relationships and strategic initiatives, further enhancing the exceptional service that Castle Island Family Office is known for. Investment solutions are offered through Castle Island Wealth, (a SEC registered RIA) ensuring clients receive
