Georgia's Caroline Jeffords named VFAF Hero of the Month January 2025 announced Christi Tasker National Press Secretary

ATLANTA , GA, UNITED STATES, January 10, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- From the press room of L-Strategies - The official press of Veterans for America First

CPT Robert M. Cornicelli US Army (Ret)/Navy Veteran, President, Veterans for America First released: Honoring Caroline Jeffords as Hero of the Month

Caroline Jeffords, a proud Georgian and tireless advocate for election integrity, has become a beacon of hope within the America First movement. Her leadership in ensuring fairness and transparency in the electoral process reflects her unwavering dedication to protecting the foundation of democracy...the right to vote.

Through her efforts, Jeffords has demonstrated the resolve and vision needed to restore trust in the democratic system.

Serving as the Georgia GOP State Secretary, Caroline has focused on strengthening grassroots initiatives and championing policies that put Americans first. Her leadership has reconnected the Republican Party with its conservative values and the concerns of everyday citizens. Her work has earned her the endorsement of Veterans for America First (VFAF), reflecting her alignment with the movement's commitment to strengthening national security, supporting veterans, and promoting the prosperity of American families.
