Tyler Atkins, Chief Sales and Marketing Officer

Teresa brings over a decade of dedicated experience in the pet care industry, with a focus on providing compassionate and high-quality care through her work at animal hospitals throughout Western Canada. Her ability to connect with pet owners and prioritize the well-being of their animals has built trust and lasting relationships, a quality that aligns perfectly with SquarePet's mission to deliver premium nutrition and improve the lives of pets. Teresa's expertise in understanding the unique needs of pets and her proven success in fostering meaningful client relationships equip her to drive SquarePet's strategic goals of expanding brand awareness and nurturing partnerships that reflect the company's commitment to superior pet care.

"I am excited to join SquarePet and be part of a team that prioritizes science-backed, premium nutrition for pets," said Teresa Vuong. "I look forward to working closely with our partners in Western Canada to bring SquarePet's exceptional products to more pet families."

SquarePet continues to set itself apart in the pet nutrition market with its focus on high-quality ingredients, transparent sourcing, and formulas developed by veterinary professionals. Teresa's appointment underscores the brand's dedication to growth and its commitment to serving pets and their owners across Canada.
