Best Selling Author - Karen Petry

Central to the success of "Unlocking Success" is Karen Petry's chapter, "I know That I Know That I Know." Karen shares her transformative journey of resilience and unwavering faith as she navigates life's unexpected challenges and losses. Through her story, she encourages readers to cultivate confidence, embrace failures as stepping stones, and trust the deep inner knowing that leads to a fulfilled life. Her message inspires readers to align their lives with their dreams through authenticity, gratitude, and persistence.

Meet Karen Petry:

For over two decades, Karen Petry has thrived as a Communication Expert, achieving success as a Business Strategist and Program Manager at two global corporations—Red Hat/IBM (a Fortune 500 company) and SAS (recognized as one of Forbes' America's Best Employers). Karen's passion for effective communication and leadership drove her to earn a bachelor's degree in Communication and Business, followed by a master's in Strategic Brand Communication. Her expertise helps individuals and organizations communicate with purpose, strategy, and confidence.

As a Communication Strategist, Karen has empowered people from all over the world to align their goals with their deepest values. Her journey, from modest beginnings in southern Brazil to becoming an International Communication Expert, exemplifies the power of resilience and strategic thinking. At just 18, Karen embarked on her journey abroad, and today, with over 20 years of experience, she uses her background in Strategic Communication to help others build confidence and communicate effectively.

In her corporate career, Karen has successfully established new departments, expanded brand reach, boosted global revenue, streamlined processes, and fostered cohesive, high-performing teams. In 2020, she launched Vida by Design, a venture dedicated to helping men and women build confidence and design successful, fulfilling lives. Through Vida by Design, Karen has guided countless individuals to overcome doubts and insecurities, allowing them to rediscover their passions and realize their dreams—whether in business, relationships, or personal pursuits.

Karen's commitment to fostering personal growth extends beyond the professional world. She is a dedicated advocate for foster children and is preparing to adopt a group of siblings, driven by her deep compassion and belief in creating strong family bonds. In her free time, Karen enjoys long beach walks with her boyfriend Michael, and spending quality time with her family and her pug, Olive.
