This donation underscores both Kramer Automotive Group's and Kimberly Eakin Kia's commitment to giving back to the communities they serve. Representatives from both the automotive groups and the nonprofit group gathered to celebrate the partnership and discuss the impact of this contribution.

“The Center of Hope has been a beacon of support for so many in Polk County, and we are honored to support their mission with this donation. Kramer Auto is proud to support the organization.”

Chuck Kramer, CEO of Kramer Automotive Group

“At Kramer Automotive Group, we believe in driving change and making a positive difference in the lives of our neighbors,” said Chuck Kramer, CEO of Kramer Automotive Group. “The Center of Hope has been a beacon of support for so many in Polk County, and we are honored to support their mission with this donation. We are also grateful for the support from Kimberly Eakin Kia, whose generosity enhances our collective impact.”

The $10,000 contribution will directly support the Center of Hope's programs, which include food assistance, housing support, counseling services, and other essential resources for underserved populations in the region. The organization's dedicated efforts have provided hope and stability to countless individuals facing difficult circumstances.

Kramer Automotive Group's and Kimberly Eakin Kia's philanthropy is part of an ongoing corporate social responsibility initiative, which emphasizes community engagement, sustainability, and support for local organizations that make a difference. The partnership with the Center of Hope reflects their core values of compassion, service, and excellence.
