“Mr. Jayaramakrishnan brings the stature, independence and experience of over 30 years in the IT industry, having been part of the India IT scene from its near infancy. He has witnessed, and in some cases, presided over many of the phases and cycles of the Indian IT industry, specifically from an offshore services point of view. In addition, he has also been the India business unit head. He adds perspective, experience, and gravitas to the MethodHub board as Chairman and it would be great to work closely and take inputs from such a seasoned veteran. It will also help us in adhering to highest standards of corporate governance required for a capital market entry” said Aho Bilam Managing Director/CEO of MethodHub.

Ms. Mini Nair is an experienced social/community event organizer and, earlier, an entrepreneur herself, in hospitality and retail sectors. Currently a Commercial officer and Social Secretary to the Consul General in Atlanta, Mini has close to 20 years of Media experience, starting as a media personality in India and then for over 10 years in India-focused TV channels in the US. She has done extensive hosting, news reporting and program direction over the years.

“ Mini Nair is one of the most affable, yet independent and successful media personalities you can meet in your professional journey. She has handled multiple tricky distress situations in her consulate assignments, organized many community events and brings a very unique perspective to our board” said Karthik Leelasankar, VP Business Operations, MethodHub.
