

RTM Law Firm Joins the El Monte Police Department to Bring Holiday Cheer

RTM Law Firm, APC, supported the El Monte Police Department's Holiday Toy Drive last December, brightening the holidays for the local community.

EL MONTE, CA, UNITED STATES, January 14, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Last December, the spirit of giving came alive in El Monte as the Police Department hosted its annual Holiday Toy Drive, bringing smiles to children and families in need. RTM Law Firm, APC, joined hands with the community, showing its commitment to making the holidays brighter for local families.

Principal attorney Ramin T. Montakab and members of the RTM Law Firm team attended the event, embodying the firm's values of care and connection. The firm's donation of toys and treats ensured children experienced the magic of the season.

"$300,000 of toys handed out thanks to the generosity of the community and the hard work of the El Monte Police. It was an honor to play a small part in this amazing event," shared Ramin T. Montakab.

The event transformed a local venue into a festive wonderland, filled with laughter, music, and a spirit of unity. Children's faces lit up as they received toys ranging from colorful dolls to exciting games, gifts that eased the financial burden for many parents while spreading holiday cheer.

When we come together, we create something truly special — not just for the families who receive but for everyone involved.”

Ramin T. Montakab

"Moments like these remind us of the beauty of community," Ramin added. "When we come together, we create something truly special — not just for the families who receive but for everyone involved."

The Holiday Toy Drive showcased the power of collaboration, with law enforcement, businesses, and volunteers joining forces to support those in need. For RTM Law Firm, it was a chance to go beyond legal advocacy and demonstrate its dedication to the people it serves every day.

RTM's participation in the drive reflects a broader commitment to uplifting the community through meaningful initiatives. Whether standing by clients in times of difficulty or supporting local programs, the firm strives to be a source of strength and compassion.
