Michael is an outstanding attorney who has played an integral part in our firm during his tenure here, and we wish him much success in his new position at the Department of Labor.”

Marcia S. Wagner, Founder and Managing Director

As Director of the Office of Field Administration (OFA), Mr. Schloss will be responsible for the oversight of EBSA's 10 Regional Offices (and three District Offices). OFA oversees regional operations and ensures the execution of Regional Office enforcement, outreach, education and assistance programs under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) relating to fiduciary standards, prohibited transactions, reporting and disclosure, bonding, requirements for group health plans, and prohibitions against office holdings, as well as undertaking criminal investigations. OFA seeks to ensure coordination across EBSA's regions and between other EBSA and DOL program offices, resulting in integrated program, regulatory, and policy implementation. The Office provides support and technical guidance to EBSA's field offices and assures regional input into Agency and DOL programs.
