“This honor reflects the tireless work of all of the Sobo team members over the past 20 years,” said Greg Sobo. “I am grateful for the opportunity to work with such a talented team to help innocent, injured victims.”

Greg Sobo's career spans more than 20 years, during which he has established himself as a leading figure in personal injury law. He has managed a diverse range of cases, including motor vehicle accidents, slip and falls, trip and falls, and construction accidents. His ability to secure significant settlements and verdicts for clients has made him a trusted advocate for injury victims across the country.

Sobo & Sobo LLP was founded in Middletown, New York, more than 50 years ago. Initially a small local practice with one attorney, the firm has grown into one of the nation's leading personal injury law firms. Its reputation for compassion and excellence has enabled expansion into New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Wisconsin, Illinois, and Ohio. Greg Sobo's leadership and vision have been instrumental in this success, ensuring the firm remains dedicated to helping injured individuals rebuild their lives.

Greg Sobo graduated magna cum laude from Syracuse University College of Law, where he served as Executive Editor of the Syracuse Law Review. His work was published and cited by the Supreme Court of Massachusetts, highlighting his exceptional legal acumen. Before attending law school, Sobo was a decorated athlete, competing as an NCAA Division I diving champion and was one of the 10 best divers in the country in 1996.

Throughout his legal career, Sobo has been recognized as one of the nation's top prospective trial attorneys by the National Institute for Trial Advocacy. He has handled numerous mediations, arbitrations, and jury trials, consistently achieving favorable outcomes for his clients.

The title of "World's Eminent Leader in Injury Law" is awarded by World Leaders, an organization known for recognizing outstanding professionals worldwide. Their rigorous selection process considers candidates' achievements, influence, and contributions within their fields. Greg Sobo's groundbreaking work in personal injury law and his leadership at Sobo & Sobo LLP made him the unanimous choice for this honor.
