

Matt Oakley Slated to Perform Presidential Inauguration

Country artist Matt Oakley will perform 'All American Inaugural Ball' January 18, 'Presidential Inaugural Ball' January 20

WASHINGTON, DC, DC, UNITED STATES, January 14, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- /KorePR.com/ -- It's no secret that country music artist Matt Oakley bleeds red, white and blue. It is with great pride that the "Soldier's Son" announces his performances for the Presidential Inauguration in Washington DC at the 'All American Inaugural Ball' on January 18 and 'Presidential Inaugural Ball' on January 20.

"I'm proud to be an American, and to be asked to perform during a Presidential Inaugural Ball is such an honor," states Matt Oakley.

The All American Inaugural Ball will take place on Saturday, January 18 at Hyatt Regency Capitol Hill. This event will not only honor the inauguration of the 47th President of the United States, Donald Trump, but also pay tribute to American heroes. Music icon, patriot and philanthropist Lee Greenwood, best known for his patriotic anthem "Proud To Be An American", will receive an All American Hero Award.

The Presidential Inaugural Ball Presented by Oregon Republican Party CD6, The Gateway Pundit and The Joe Hoft Show will kick off at 7:00pm on Monday, January 20 at The Hamilton Live. Performers include Coffey Anderson, Brandon Hartt, Matt Oakley and more.
