

New York Association of Collaborative Professionals Joins Divorce With Respect Week® 2025

Divorce With Respect Week® will be March 3-9 2025.

NY, UNITED STATES, January 14, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The New York Association of Collaborative Professionals will participate in Divorce With Respect Week® March 3-9 2025. During Divorce With Respect Week® members of the New York Association of Collaborative Professionals will offer free 30 minute divorce consultations. These consultations are for anyone facing divorce and interested in learning more about their options, including Collaborative Divorce.

This year will be the 4th annual Divorce With Respect Week® from March 3-9, 2025.

Divorce With Respect Week® is a nationwide effort to educate and spread awareness on Collaborative Divorce. Collaborative Divorce is an option for divorce that keeps the case out of court and allows the divorcing couple to make important divorce decisions based on the best interests of their family. To learn more about Collaborative Divorce or to find a professional in your area for a free consultation, go to www.divorcewithrespectweek.com.

Melissa Goodstein

president at The New York Association of Collaborative Professionals.

The New York Association of Collaborative Professionals is an interdisciplinary association of divorce professionals in the fields of law, finance, and mental health. The association advocates for a client-centered approach that enables divorcing couples to resolve conflicts in a non-adversarial way that preserves their respect and dignity.
