

JRP Virtual Alumni Shine in Netflix's The Recruit Season 2

JRP Virtual alumni Nico Pancine and Noah Centineo shine in Netflix's The Recruit Season 2, premiering January 30, 2025.

ITASCA, IL, UNITED STATES, January 15, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- JRP Virtual is excited to celebrate a truly remarkable milestone: the success of two of its alumni, Nico Pancine and Noah Centineo, who are lighting up the entertainment industry together in Netflix's The Recruit Season 2, premiering January 30, 2025!

This moment is extra special because it represents a full-circle achievement. Noah Centineo, one of John Robert Powers' long-time success stories and a Hollywood household name, is now joined by Nico Pancine, one of JRP's newer graduates who only began his journey with us a year ago. In The Recruit, Nico will play the younger version of Noah's character, showcasing how quickly careers can change with the right guidance and dedication.

This moment represents the heart of what we do—helping talent grow, connect, and thrive in an incredibly competitive industry.”

Brigitte Blair- Director of Operations, JRP Virtual

“This is what makes what we do so rewarding,” said Brigitte Blair, Director of Operations at JRP Virtual. “Noah launched his career with us years ago, and now, Nico, who just started with us a year ago, is already sharing the screen with him. It’s a testament to the power of perseverance, talent, and the right mentorship. We couldn’t be prouder of them both.”

Nico Pancine’s journey began with JRP Virtual and The Industry Network, where he gained the tools and connections to pursue his acting dreams.

Within months, Nico signed with a prominent Vancouver agent, and now, he's bringing his talent to a global stage.

Noah Centineo, known for his standout performances in To All the Boys I've Loved Before and Black Adam, has solidified his place as one of Hollywood's most sought-after stars. Seeing a past and present JRP success story come together on such a high-profile project underscores JRP Virtual's commitment to launching and nurturing talent.

For over 100 years, JRP Virtual has been a trusted leader in talent development, providing aspiring actors and models with professional training, personalized mentorship, and exclusive opportunities to connect with top agents and casting directors worldwide.

"As The Recruit Season 2 approaches its release, we're reminded how quickly dreams can become a reality with the right support," said Blair. "This moment represents the heart of what we do—helping talent grow, connect, and thrive in an incredibly competitive industry."

Aspiring actors looking to follow in Nico and Noah's footsteps are invited to audition with JRP Virtual to take the next step toward their dreams.
