Dining Out For Life (DOFL) is an annual event held in over 50 cities across North America, connecting local restaurants, sponsors, and diners to support community-based HIV services. In Chicago, proceeds from the event benefit Vivent Health at TPAN, a vital organization providing care, education, and resources to individuals living with or impacted by HIV/AIDS.

How It Works:

- Participating restaurants donate a portion of their proceeds on event day.

- Diners can enjoy a meal while learning about Vivent Health's mission and make independent
