

BPIR Rodeo Celebrates MLK, Jr. African-American Rodeo of Champions at the National Western Stock Show

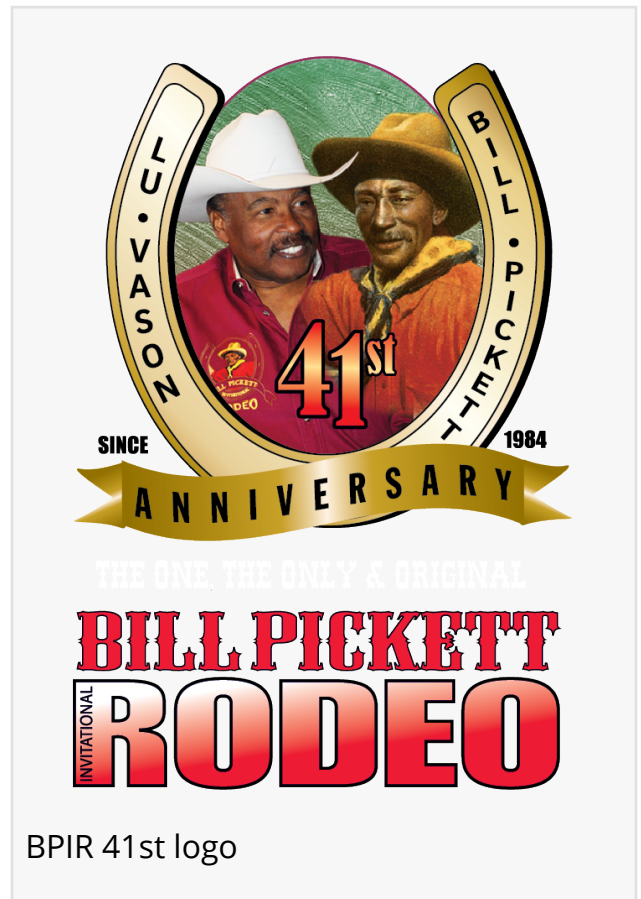

BPIR MLK, Jr. African-American Rodeo of Champions on Monday, January 20, 2025, at the iconic Denver Coliseum in Denver, Colorado

DENVER, CA, UNITED STATES, January 16, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Bill Pickett Invitational Rodeo (BPIR) is proud to present the return of the MLK, Jr. African-American Rodeo of Champions on Monday, January 20, 2025, at the iconic Denver Coliseum in Denver, Colorado. Held on the Martin Luther King Jr. holiday, this annual event celebrates the enduring history, heritage, and culture of America's Black cowboys and cowgirls, while honoring the profound legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Presented by the National Western Stock Show, this one-of-a-kind event brings together world-class athletes, electrifying rodeo action, and a vibrant celebration of African-American contributions to the Western way of life. Audiences will experience heart-pounding events such as bull riding, steer wrestling, and barrel racing.

"Honoring Legacy, Building Future Generations"

This year's MLK, Jr. African-American Rodeo of Champions promises an unforgettable evening of action and inspiration. From the thrilling competition in the arena to the recognition of today's champions who carry forward the spirit of Bill Pickett. The MLK Rodeo, celebrating its 19 year anniversary, encapsulates the resilience, courage, and determination of the Black Cowboys and Cowgirls that define Black Western heritage. You will observe five generations of Black cowboys and Cowgirls as they compete against each other, some competing against their mother or father. At the end of the evening, we will crown the 2025 MLK Jr. African-American Rodeo

Champions.
