Overlaid on this is the school's logo, which consists of a green shield with a pink cherry blossom in the center and the letters 'AOJ' in a stylized green font. Below the shield is a green banner with the text 'AOJ Language School'. To the left of the logo, the text reads 'High quality Japanese learning from anywhere in the world.' followed by 'Online Japanese School' and 'AOJ Language School' in a larger, bold green font. A pink rectangular button with white text says 'Open in April 2022!'. At the bottom of the graphic, a white banner with black text states 'AOJ language school will be open in April 2022!'.

Semi-private lessons are held with two or more students and one Japanese language teacher. Compared to private lessons, the cost is lower, but the quality of instruction is higher. By studying with family or friends, it is easier to encourage each other to continue learning. It is also possible to take semi-private lessons while taking group lessons.

The school also offer a free trial lesson with a Japanese language teacher. If you would like to learn Japanese with your family or friends while having fun and improving each other's Japanese, please take this opportunity to sign up.

Semi-Private Lesson Details

<Contents>

A Semi-Private Lesson is a Japanese language class conducted with two or more students and one Japanese language teacher.

Semi-private lessons are ticket-based and available year-round. To enroll, you can apply with a friend, family member, or anyone else you'd like to learn Japanese with. Simply adjust the schedule, and the lesson will be arranged.

The length of each class increases in proportion to the number of participants, allowing for more in-depth content. Additionally, the more participants there are, the lower the price per person.

<Features>

-Easy to maintain motivation

Students can take classes with friends and family members, making it easy to maintain motivation.

-Reasonable lessons tailored to the needs of the student

Because lessons are given in small groups, the content of lessons can be discussed flexibly.

They offer a wide range of courses to meet students' needs, such as daily conversation, business conversation, JLPT preparation, etc.

-Flexible schedule

Unlike group lessons, which only accept enrollment twice a year, students can apply for lessons throughout the year.

The schedule of lessons is arranged by the student and the teacher, and make-up lessons are available in case of schedule changes.

-High quality lessons by experienced teachers

Lessons are taught by Japanese instructors who are certified to teach Japanese and have a wealth of experience in the field of Japanese language education.

They will propose the most suitable lesson content according to the needs of the students.

-Free participation in AOJ Language School's popular lessons

You can participate in the "Japanese Culture Exchange Course" offered in AOJ Language School's group lessons free of charge.
