

Idahoans Invited to Nominate Outstanding Humanities Educators for Award from the Idaho Humanities Council

Nominations Due Friday, February 28th

BOISE, ID, UNITED STATES, January 20, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Idaho Humanities Council (IHC) needs your help celebrating outstanding teachers in your community! Three K-12 teachers will be selected for this annual award. Help the IHC recognize your history, foreign language, English, government, philosophy, or literature teachers that are making an impact in your community!

Submit your nomination and learn more details about the award at <https://idahohumanities.org/about/educatoraward/>.

All nominated teachers will be contacted directly by the IHC with an invitation to be considered for this award. Teachers who do not meet the award criteria will not be considered.

Award Criteria:

- Educator must be teaching full time in a classroom in the current school year in Idaho.
- Educator must be licensed to teach in the state of Idaho.
- Educator must be teaching a humanities discipline.
- Educator must exemplify the guiding principles of the Idaho Humanities Council.
- Educators cannot have won this award in the past.
