Cybersecurity & Ransomware Live!

WOODLAND HILLS, CA, UNITED STATES, January 21, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Live! 360 Events, the premier source for enterprise technology training, announced today the technical agenda and sponsorship opportunities for the upcoming Cybersecurity & Ransomware Live! VirtCon event, taking place virtually May 13-15, 2025. The three-day conference and exposition will feature intensive training across six critical tracks: ransomware industry, incident response, human intelligence/security for developers, red team tactics, blue team operations, and purple team integration.

"In today's rapidly evolving threat landscape, security professionals need hands-on experience with the latest defense strategies and technologies," said Brent Sutton, Vice President of Live! 360 Events. "VirtCon 2025's technical agenda addresses the most pressing challenges facing security teams, from ransomware prevention to building secure development practices."

The all-virtual format allows security professionals worldwide to participate in their choice of over 30 live sessions, technical workshops, hands-on labs, and panel discussions and the ability to connect with security vendors without incurring travel costs. Early registration for the three-day package is available for $995 through January 31st using discount code "FLASH", a $700 savings off standard pricing.

"In addition to the in-depth technical content, attendees can expect meaningful connections with solution providers and security practitioners in the expo hall," added Sutton. "Our virtual exhibition hall and sponsored session opportunities offer unique ways to demonstrate security solutions in action and engage with decision-makers who are actively seeking new tools and technologies."

Sponsorship opportunities include:

- Virtual exhibit hall booth packages
- Sponsored sessions
- Digital marketing packages
- Lead generation programs
