pleased to announce that its senior living community enhances the quality of life for residents with numerous amenities. Residents live in comfortable apartment units with everything they need to maintain independence.

Brighton Court Assisted Living features nutritious dining options where seniors can enjoy three delicious meals a day prepared by experienced kitchen staff. Residents are also welcome to prepare their meals in their apartments. In addition to meals, senior residents have access to daily housekeeping, scheduled transportation for running errands or going on outings, personalized services and assistance, and a full-time nurse on call 24/7. The community also hosts numerous events and activities, allowing residents to stay active and engaged and make new friends.

Brighton Court Assisted Living aims to provide seniors with the best quality of life while allowing them to enjoy their independence as much as possible. Residents are welcome to go about their lives as they wish while taking advantage of the necessary assistance, whether they need help preparing meals, cleaning their apartments, or more personalized services like bathing, dressing, grooming, and medication management.

Anyone interested in learning about the amenities offered can visit the Brighton Court Assisted Living website or call 1-509-926-4533.
