

Shamrock Roofing and Construction Awards Spring 2025 Scholarships

Local Kansas City Roofing Company Celebrates Students Who Give Back to Their Community

KANSAS CITY, KS, UNITED STATES, January 17, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Shamrock Roofing and Construction is proud to announce the recipients of its Spring 2025 Shamrock Cares Scholarship Program. Allie Kohl and Natalie Mangen have each been awarded a $1,000 scholarship to support their educational pursuits. Allie Kohl, a student at Rowan University, is pursuing a major in Graphic Design and a minor in Advertising. In her essay, Allie expressed her passion for inspiring others through her art and commitment to overcoming challenges to achieve her goals.

Natalie Mangen is a student at Savannah College of Art and Design, majoring in Architecture. Her essay highlighted her lifelong love of the arts and her desire to use her talents to make a positive impact on her community.

The Shamrock Cares Scholarship Program recognizes students who have demonstrated a commitment to serving their communities through volunteer work. Applicants were required to submit a 1,000-word essay describing their volunteer experiences, how they impacted their lives, and how their chosen major will enable them to make a difference in the world.

"At Shamrock Roofing and Construction, we believe in giving back to our community and inspiring future generations to do the same," said Garen Armstrong, Executive Director of Shamrock Roofing and Construction. "We are proud to support Allie and Natalie in their educational pursuits and look forward to seeing the positive impact they will make in their communities." Shamrock is known for caring for their local community through Cars 4 Heros, Roof Giveaways, and Scholarships for students. Garen Armstrong, Executive Director, and heart transplant survivor, carries on the legacy his father started 47 years ago. "We pledge excellence and compassion with every shingle we lay and every community program we support. That's
