

Aplus Housing Offers Fully Furnished Single-Family Homes to Meet Diverse Housing Needs

SEATTLE, WA, UNITED STATES, January 21, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Aplus Housing, a corporate housing provider in the Seattle area, is introducing fully furnished single-family rental homes as part of its accommodation offerings. This expansion addresses the growing demand for flexible temporary housing solutions and provides an alternative to traditional apartment-based corporate housing.

While many corporate housing providers focus on apartment units, Aplus Housing now includes single-family homes in its catalog to better serve families, relocating professionals, and individuals seeking spacious and private accommodations. These homes are located in well-established Seattle neighborhoods and surrounding areas, designed to cater to a variety of temporary housing needs.

Single-family homes offer the additional space and privacy that some guests require whether they are relocating, completing a long-term assignment, or transitioning between permanent residences.”

Kathy Brekke

“Our goal is to provide housing options that align with the unique circumstances of our clients,” said Kathy Brekke, CEO at Aplus Housing. “Single-family homes offer the additional space and privacy that some guests require, whether they are relocating, completing a long-term assignment, or transitioning between permanent residences.”

The homes are fully equipped with essential furnishings, appliances, and utilities, ensuring that guests have access to comfortable living spaces. Each property offers multiple bedrooms, private yards, and convenient access to local amenities such as schools, parks, and business districts. These features provide an option that feels more like a home compared to traditional corporate housing.

Aplus Housing's focus on offering diverse housing options reflects its commitment to meeting the evolving needs of its clientele. By including single-family homes in its portfolio, the company can accommodate families, professionals seeking extended stays, and those who prefer a more residential environment during their transition periods.
