

Flooring OS Partners with Estimat-All to Launch AI-Powered Estimation Take-Off Integration

Flooring OS and Estimat-All partner to launch AI-powered estimation take-off integration, transforming accuracy and efficiency for flooring professionals.

DALLAS, TX, UNITED STATES, January 23, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Flooring OS, the modern, intuitive flooring business management software, is thrilled to announce its partnership with Estimat-All, a pioneering estimation platform. This collaboration is set to unveil a groundbreaking AI-powered software integration designed to redefine estimation take-offs for flooring professionals.

As the flooring industry becomes increasingly complex, accurate and efficient take-offs are crucial for maintaining margins and ensuring project success. This new integration combines the robust estimation capabilities of Estimat-All with Flooring OS's comprehensive business management tools, leveraging the power of artificial intelligence to deliver unmatched precision, speed, and efficiency.

This partnership empowers flooring professionals to work smarter, not harder, with AI-driven precision and efficiency in estimation take-offs.”

Larry Nickerson, Founder, Estimat-All

Larry Nickerson, founder of Estimat-All, expressed his enthusiasm:

“Our partnership with Flooring OS represents a significant leap forward in simplifying the estimation process. By integrating AI, we’re empowering flooring professionals to work smarter, not harder.”

Justin Wirpel, co-founder of Flooring OS, highlighted the collaboration's significance:

"This partnership underscores our commitment to innovation and delivering the tools flooring businesses need to thrive. Together with Estimat-All, we're equipping our customers with solutions that drive efficiency and profitability."

The integration will allow users to seamlessly import take-off data into Flooring OS, streamlining workflows from estimation to project execution. Features like real-time data syncing, dynamic cost calculations, and AI-driven error detection will ensure accuracy and reduce time spent on manual tasks.

Attendees of The International Surface Event (TISE 2025) can visit with Flooring OS and Estimat-All to learn more about the integration at Booth #2859. Understand firsthand how this dynamic tool can transform your flooring business operations.
