

Re-Inventing Private Wildlife Removal Services - Wildlife, Inc

Wildlife, Inc., a Denver, Colorado-based wildlife removal service company, has been re-inventing how wildlife is removed from clientele's homes.

DENVER, CO, UNITED STATES, January 18, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Wildlife, Inc., a leader in the wildlife removal industry, is proud to announce the opening of two new service locations in Madison and Milwaukee, Wisconsin, set for 2025. Known for its scientific, eco-friendly, and humane approach to wildlife management, Wildlife, Inc. is redefining how nuisance wildlife is removed from homes and businesses.

Wildlife, Inc. stands apart and is becoming a groundbreaking service by employing state-certified wildlife biologists and technicians certified by the National Wildlife Control Operators Association (NWCOA). This highly qualified team ensures every removal is performed with the utmost professionalism and care, using methods rooted in science and sustainability. The company is committed to minimizing harm to animals while addressing human-wildlife conflicts effectively.

"At Wildlife, Inc., our mission is to provide safe, humane, and environmentally responsible solutions for managing nuisance wildlife," said [Andrew Rose, Utah State Certified Wildlife Biologist - B.S. of Wildlife Biology]. "Expanding our services to Madison and Milwaukee allows us to bring our innovative approach to more communities, ensuring that wildlife and people can coexist peacefully."

The company's services include wildlife removal, exclusion, and prevention, all tailored to protect both properties and the animals themselves. By focusing on long-term solutions and addressing the root causes of wildlife issues, Wildlife, Inc. helps clients prevent future conflicts while supporting local ecosystems.

Home and business owners in Madison and Milwaukee can now look forward to Wildlife, Inc.'s trusted expertise in addressing issues caused by raccoons, bats, squirrels, birds, and other nuisance wildlife. The company's eco-friendly techniques and humane practices have earned it a reputation for excellence in wildlife management.
