

Palmetto Carriage Works Announces Annual Locals Free Day on January 26

On January 26, from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM, Palmetto Carriage Works invites tri-county residents to enjoy a free carriage tour.

CHARLESTON, SC, UNITED STATES, January 21, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Palmetto Carriage Works, Charleston's oldest carriage company, is excited to announce its highly anticipated annual Locals Free Day on Sunday, January 26, 2025. This beloved community event invites tri-county residents to enjoy a complimentary carriage ride through Charleston's historic streets as a token of gratitude for their continued support.

Residents of Charleston, Berkeley, and Dorchester counties can take part in this special event by presenting a valid government-issued ID that confirms their local address. Tours will run throughout the day, departing from the iconic Big Red Barn located at 8 Guignard Street in downtown Charleston.

"Locals Free Day is one of our favorite traditions," said Tommy Doyle, General Manager at Palmetto Carriage Works. "It's our way of giving back to the community that has supported us for generations. We're thrilled to share Charleston's rich history and vibrant culture with our neighbors."

Guests will embark on a memorable journey through the city's picturesque streets, learning about its history, architecture, and unique stories from expert guides. Whether you're a history buff, a longtime Charlestonian, or someone rediscovering the city, this is an experience you won't want to miss.
