

Inspira Takes First Place in APUC Framework Agreement

Inspira awarded 1st place on Lots 1 and 2 of APUC's Framework Agreement for Academic Integrity Solutions and Assessment Management Systems.

OSLO, NORWAY, January 21, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Inspira is delighted to announce that from November 2024 they have been awarded first place on Lot 1 for Academic Integrity and Lot 2 for Assessment Management Systems on APUC's Framework Agreement ITS 1049 AP for Academic Integrity Solutions and Assessment Management Systems.

This means the HE and FE institutions in Scotland and the members of the UK Universities Purchasing Consortia (UKUPC) will have the opportunity to procure Inspira Assessment and Inspira Originality through the nationwide framework agreement. The framework agreement guarantees members a compliant route to market, making it easier than ever to scale your use of digital assessment tools across your organization.

Chief Revenue Officer at Inspira, Anthony Brockley commented "We could not be more proud that Inspira Originality and Inspira Assessment were ranked no. 1 by APUC and its members and are now available to educational institutions in the UK through the APUC framework agreement.

"I would like to thank the APUC team for their comprehensive evaluation of both of these systems. To have Inspira Originality and Inspira Assessment available as solutions for both Lots of the framework agreement is a credit to all of my colleagues in the Inspira team for designing, developing and delivering solutions which improve the assessment and educational experiences for staff and students every day."
