This partnership underscores MontyCloud’s transformative impact on the cloud operations management space, enabling Managed Service Providers (MSPs) to monetize, optimize, and operate their cloud operations with AI powered intelligent, automated solutions. The funding will accelerate MontyCloud’s roadmap for innovation, talent acquisition, and global market expansion.

“

We’re excited to support MontyCloud's next phase of growth and help them scale their impact globally.”

Eric Engineer

“We are thrilled to partner with S3 Ventures, whose expertise and commitment to innovation perfectly align with our mission to revolutionize cloud operations,” said

Walter Rogers, CEO of MontyCloud. “This investment will help us enhance our platform’s capabilities, expand our global footprint, and continue delivering exceptional value to our customers through cutting-edge innovations in cloud operations automation.”

S3 Ventures, known for backing high-growth technology companies, recognized MontyCloud as a transformative player in the rapidly growing MSP cloud operations market. “50%+ of organizations outsource cloud management to MSPs—yet the estimated 300K+ MSPs worldwide struggle to efficiently operationalize and monetize these increasingly complex environments. MontyCloud has proven itself as a category leader with its extraordinary growth, recognition by industry leaders, and visionary approach to MSP cloud automation,” said Eric Engineer, Partner at S3 Ventures. “We’re excited to support their next phase of growth and help them scale their impact globally.”

MontyCloud's innovation will continue to accelerate with enhancements that include expanding cloud operations agent capabilities, increasing customers' ability to source and win incremental revenue, and drive down operational costs.
