Thank you very much, everybody. Well, thank you very, very much. Vice President Vance, speaker Johnson, senator Thune, Chief Justice Roberts, Justices of the United States Supreme Court, President Clinton, President Bush, President Obama, President Biden, Vice President Harris, and my fellow citizens. The golden age of America begins right now. From this day forward, our country will flourish and be respected again all over the world. We will be the envy of every nation, and we will not allow ourselves to be taken advantage of any longer.

Donald Trump speech summary

Yoodli also identified areas for improvement. The speech could have been better structured using the rule of threes. For example, Trump could have framed America's future under governance, security, and unity. Public safety could have been explained as three steps: law enforcement, border security, and dismantling criminal organizations. The speech could have been 36% shorter to make it more concise and impactful. Providing more actionable details on plans for education and public health reforms would have added depth to the message.
