

French Flap Paperback Edition of "Saving KC" by Grinnell Desjarlais Offers Dual Endings with Expanded Distribution

The speculative historical fiction novel with dual endings now available in a French flap paperback, expanding its reach via Pathway Book Service in 2025.

AUBURN, WA, UNITED STATES, January 21, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Due to popular demand, Grinnell "Buzz" Desjarlais's acclaimed novel "Saving KC" now releases in a French flap paperback edition on February 18, 2025. Featuring its unique dual endings, this special edition allows readers to choose between a hopeful, happily-ever-after conclusion, or a more authentic, bittersweet resolution. Distributed by Pathway Book Service, this expanded release brings the thought-provoking speculative historical fiction to a broader audience.

The novel invites readers to imagine an alternate history, speculating on what might have happened if a singer like Karen Carpenter had been saved, blending fact and fiction in a deeply moving narrative. Set against the backdrop of post-Vietnam America, "Saving KC" delves into the complexities of addiction, recovery, and redemption, blending the author's real-life experiences with a thought-provoking exploration of two disparate characters brought together by fate.

“Addiction is a path that can lead to a happy ending or a tragic one. The dual endings in 'Saving KC' reflect that journey, showing that while the outcome depends on our choices, courage and support can make all the difference,” says author Grinnell Desjarlais.

Elliott Wolf, President of Classic Day Publishing/Peanut

Butter Publishing, adds, “Partnering with Pathway Book Service ensures 'Saving KC' reaches a wider audience, shining a spotlight on this poignant and powerful novel.”

Releasing January 7, 2025, the French flap paperback edition joins the ebook and audiobook formats, all featuring the dual endings. “Saving KC” is available from Amazon and other retailers. The publisher is Classic Day Publishing, an imprint of Peanut Butter Publishing.
